That didn't even cross my mind. I'd rather us know than look like a fool.

My pleasure. Don't want you to think I'm being some kind of critical nit picker, but also thought you'd want to know.

Hey there. I know Tina is away so sending this to you. A few minor typos on the calendar items - Exchange Day Friday is the 26th, and Tech Summit on the 15th is a Thursday.

Thank you from Jessica Lall

Before the holidays, Jessica Lall, President & CEO of CCA, wrote a letter thanking members for contributing to a successful 2017. Please take a look at the letter to read about what we have achieved together and our legislative accomplishments to see the progress we are making in building a Downtown that is welcoming to all, including employers, tourists, families, singles and retirees. We look forward to seeing you at our events and policy committee meetings this year.

Small Business Council

CCA is dedicated to creating an environment where businesses can thrive. Small businesses are especially critical to our economy, with research showing that employment growth in DTLA is strongest at organizations that employ fewer than 25 people. In order to serve this important sector and the needs of the many small businesses in DTLA, CCA created a new member group called the Small Business Council. We invite small businesses to join us on January 9 for an introduction to the program. Click here for details.

Shane Phillips: Impact-Maker to Watch

Congratulations to Shane Phillips, Director of Public Policy of CCA, for being designated as an "Impact-Maker to Watch" in 2018. He was nominated by Councilmember Huizar. As part of this recognition, the City Impact Lab will honor him and other great Angelenos at a reception on January 16.

CCA in the news
